Letters of intent should state what the candidate hopes to achieve and what contribution they think they can make to the Conference and include details of the applicants journalistic experience and skills, familiarity with work-processing, desktop publishing, and/or photo editing programs, MUN experience and knowledge of current events. Applicants are encouraged to send samples of their work as outlined on page 11 of the Administrative Handbook.

MUN-Directors or teachers who know the candidate well should include in their recommendations references to the candidates' academic performance, school and extra-curricular activities, and hopefully give the reader(s) an impression of why the candidate would make a good MUNITY Press Delegate. Where there is more than one application from one school, MUN-Directors must rank order (max.3!)
